

SCARAB CONFLICT NECRON ARMY LIST

The Necron are an ancient race whose origins are a mystery to the scholars of the Imperium. What precious little information has been learned from interrogations of Eldar who themselves only have stories that have become little more than legends. Known to the Eldar as the Yngir, the Necron are the remnants of an ancient race called the Necrontyr.

Forces

The Scarab Conflict Necron Army List uses the datasheets from the Necron Forces section.

Using The Army List

Scarab Conflict Necron formations come in three types, the first two are phalanxes and support formations. Each phalanx you include in the army allows you to field any three support formations. Although you can only take a support formation if you first take a phalanx, they are treated as separate independent formations during a battle and do not have to move around together. The third type of formation are Harvester formations. A maximum of up to a third of the points available to the army may be spent on these formations.

Finally, Necron Individuals includes special characters, formations and objective options. Each individual may only be taken once by the army. The rules for using each individual are listed in the “Notes” column.

The army list includes the following information:

Formation: The name of the formation.

Units: The core units that make up the formation.

Extras: A Necron formation may include any of the extra units listed in the “Extras” column. You may include any number of extra units in a formation unless it is specifically noted otherwise. All of the core and extra units in a formation count as being part of one formation. The different units may not move off on their own.

Cost: The points value of the formation.

Special Rules

The Implacable Advance rule applies to all Necron formations (see Implacable Advance) and the Phase Out rule applies to certain formations (see Phase Out). Additionally, certain units and weapons have special abilities described in Necron Technology (see Necron Technology).

SPECIAL RULE

Scarab Conflict Necron Army Epic Tournament Special Rules

Necron Reserves: Any Necron formation may be held back “in reserve” (with the exception of the Aeonic Orb and Abattoir) if you are playing the Epic Tournament scenario. Note that formations that do not have teleport will only be able to enter play through portals. Any Necron formation in the reserves for any reason (either because it has not yet entered play or it is broken) is considered destroyed for the purpose of tiebreak, or the “Break Their Spirit” goal.

Garrisons: The Necron typically act in an offensive manner and as such, their formations may not garrison in the Epic Tournament scenario unless fielding a Tomb Complex. To represent that a tomb may contain active Necron, the player may choose to garrison up to two Infantry Phalanx formations at the Tomb Complex.

SCARAB CONFLICT NECRON ARMY LIST

Scarab Conflict Necron armies have a strategy rating of 2. All other formations have an initiative rating of 1+, but receive modifiers depending on the action chosen when taking an action test (see Implacable Advance).

SPECIAL RULE

Necron: Necron technology allows many of its units to repair themselves at an accelerated rate. This is reflected as the Necron ability in a unit's datasheet.

Units with Necron that have been destroyed can regenerate. Formations can return one previously destroyed Necron unit in the end phase of each turn either on or off the board. In addition, if a formation regroups on board it can use the dice rolls to either return units with the Necron ability to play or to remove blast markers or both (e.g., if you rolled a "2" you could return 2 units to play, remove 2 blast markers, or return 1 unit and remove 1 blast marker). Formations off board are restricted to using their regroup function to remove blast markers only.

Portal: Necron Portals are the primary means by which the Necron forces are transported across the galaxy. Any formation that is in the reserves, either because it has not entered play or has left the board for any reason, may enter play via a portal as part of any activation that allows movement. Measure their movement using the portal as the starting point. Additionally, formations may leave the board by entering a portal, taking them into the reserves. Note that once in the reserves they can either re-enter play immediately via another portal, provided they have movement, or remain in the reserves.

Necron Portals can only be used by armoured vehicles with walker, infantry, or light vehicles units. Each portal can be used only once per turn for either entering or exiting the battlefield, not for both. Thus a formation may enter one portal with part of their movement, and exit from a second, unused portal, continuing their movement from that portal.

If, at the end of the movement, a unit is out of formation it is destroyed (see Formations). Example: if you moved a formation of four units through one portal and out another and two units were unable to make the full movement (i.e. get through the second portal), the Necron player would have to choose which units were to be destroyed, the two that moved through the portal or the two that didn't.

Living Metal: Units made of living metal receive a second save. This save functions exactly like an invulnerable save except that it is a 4+ save rather than a 6+.

1. Necron Technology

Q: Can the leader special ability be used to return a destroyed Necron unit instead of removing an additional Blast marker?

A: Yes, but only when regrouping.

Q: Can a Necron formation in reserve carry out a marshal action, move to enter play and regenerate destroyed units by regrouping?

A: Yes.

Q: Can a Necron formation carry out a marshal action, move through a portal into reserve and regenerate destroyed units by regrouping?

A: No.

Q: Can a portal be used if its formation is broken?

A: Yes.

Q: Can a formation enter play via a portal that is covered by, or is in the zone of control of, enemy units?

A: Yes, but the formation using it to enter play would have to carry out an engage action.

Q: What happens when a formation in reserve fails its action test and needs to enter play via a portal that is covered by, or is in the zone of control of, enemy units?

A: It takes a Blast marker, and may not take a hold action. It effectively loses its activation.

SPECIAL RULE

Implacable Advance

The Necron are an offensive army, always on the advance, stopping only to eliminate enemy positions before moving on to harvest others. While subject to disruption from losses and enemy fire, the mechanical nature of the Necron permits them to easily reorganize to maintain the offensive momentum. Necron formations receive a +1 bonus to Marshal actions. Due to their steady, deliberate, nature Necron formations cannot take a March action.

SPECIAL RULE

Phase Out

When a Necron formation becomes broken, it does not just fall back, but also vanishes from the battlefield without leaving any proof of its existence.

In the end phase of the turn, remove the formation from the board into the reserves, but keep it away from any destroyed units. The formation will roll to rally in the end phase, handling blast markers as per the core rules. It may re-enter by teleporting, or through a portal. If there are not enough portals to deal with all the off-table formations, then the formation must remain off the table until a portal is available for it to use. If the rally roll fails, the formation must remain in the reserves until it rallies. Note that with the exception of the C'tan, no Necron War Engines may phase out.
